Teaser	Exemption from dog tax is always possible if you meet the necessary requirements. You can obtain further information from your local authority.
Volltext	If you are dependent on a dog because of your disability, you are generally exempt from dog tax. However, the conditions vary from municipality to municipality. Exemption often depends on whether the disabled person is dependent on the assistance of a dog. The tax exemption applies to dogs that are indispensable for the protection and assistance of blind, deaf or otherwise completely helpless people. In addition, rescue dogs that have undergone appropriate training and testing are generally also exempt from dog tax In most Rhineland-Palatinate municipalities, tax exemption is currently granted in accordance with the
