| Teaser                        | Have you moved to another licensing district? Then you have to have your vehicle documents updated at the responsible registration authority there and apply for a new license plate if you do not want to continue using the previous license plate.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Volltext                      | If a keeper has moved to another registration district, he must inform the registration authority responsible for the new place of residence or registered office of his new address and have the vehicle documents (registration certificates or vehicle registration document and vehicle registration document) corrected. In addition, he must apply for the assignment of a new license plate if he does not want to continue using the previous license plate.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| Kosten                       | The fees for re-registration are based on the scale of charges for road traffic measures. The amount of the fees may vary depending on the case constellation. Specific information on this can be obtained from the locally competent licensing authority.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
