Teaser	If you wish to engage in prostitution, you must attend a health consultation before registering for the first time.
Volltext	Persons who wish to work as a prostitute must attend a health consultation before registering for the first time. After registering their activity, prostitutes aged 21 and over must attend the health consultation at least every twelve months. Prostitutes under the age of 21 must attend a health consultation at least every six months. The person receiving advice will be issued with a certificate confirming the health advice provided. This can be issued in anonymized form and the administrative services are subject to a fee. Violations of the obligation to seek health advice may
