Volltext	If you are an EU citizen or a company in another country facing additional obstacles because an authority is not complying with EU law, SOLVIT can help you. SOLVIT is a network in which EU member states work together to help you solve problems in a pragmatic way. The problems must have arisen in a specific individual case due to the incorrect application of EU law by an authority in another EU country. Examples of cases in which SOLVIT can help: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognition of your professional qualifications • Visas and residence rights • Trade and services (companies) • Vehicles and driving licenses • Family benefits • Pensions • Work abroad • Unemployment benefits • Health insurance • Access to education • Cross-border capital movements and payments • VAT refund In order to solve your problem as quickly as possible, SOLVIT draws on informal legal information from experts in the Member State administrations and the European Commission. SOLVIT is an alternative problem-solving mechanism. Proposed solutions are not binding on you and cannot be contested. If your problem is not resolved, or if you

	consider the proposed solution unacceptable, you can still initiate a formal procedure. Please note that a complaint to SOLVIT is of an informal nature and does not replace or formally interfere with an ongoing procedure. In particular, you remain responsible for complying with any time limits for appeals and legal action in administrative proceedings that are already underway. SOLVIT can only take action if you have not yet taken your case to court.
