Teaser	Are you from Switzerland or another EU or EEA country and want to work as a medical-technical radiology assistant in Germany? Then you need a permit to use this job title.
Volltext	The State Office for Social Affairs, Youth and Welfare (LSJV) is the recognition authority that examines the equivalence of vocational qualifications acquired abroad with German vocational training. The determination of any significant differences between vocational training acquired in Germany and vocational training acquired abroad is carried out. After the equivalence has been checked, a declaratory decision is issued. Once equivalence has been established and the other personal requirements have been met, permission to use the professional title is granted.
