Sachverhalt

studying is extended by at least one year and usually by two years or for the remaining duration of the study.

If you participate in an EU or multilateral programme of mobility measures (e.B. ERASMUS+ programme of the European Union) or if the foreigner is subject to an agreement between two or more higher education institutions, the residence permit is extended for at least two years. If the course lasts less than two years, it is extended by its duration.

As a rule, the residence permit cannot be renewed if this has already been ruled out when the residence permit was issued or last extended.
