Teaser	The aptitude test is a special form of the tax consultant examination. If you have a professional qualification from another European country, you are entitled to pass the aptitude test for self-employment and to bear the title of "tax consultant" in Germany.
Volltext	Applicants with a certificate of competence or training entitling them to self-employed assistance in tax matters in another Member State of the European Union or a state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or in Switzerland and who would like to work as a tax consultant in Germany can take an aptitude test upon application. With the successfully passed aptitude test, the same rights are acquired as through the successfully passed tax consultant examination. The aptitude test is a state examination. The examination consists of a maximum of two written proctoring papers and one oral examination. The examinations are approved by the State Examination Board of the Ministry of Finance of Rhineland-Palatinate.
