Teaser	Here you will receive information and assistance for admission to an evening grammar school.
Volltext	The Abendgymnasium is an institution of the second educational path. It offers you, as an adult or adult student with professional experience, the opportunity to acquire the general higher education entrance qualification (Abitur) after a three-year course of education. They go through a one-year introductory phase in the class and a two-year qualification phase in the course system. The evening grammar school is the right choice for you if you do not (yet) want to or can not give up your professional activity completely. Classes take place four to five days a week in the evening. Alternatively, the model "Abitur-online" is offered. Half of the lessons are organized in "attendance phases" (two weekdays at school) and half in "self-study phases" (at home on the PC). They study and work just as much as those who attend school every night, but can manage themselves half the time.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	You must submit the following documents with your application for membership: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a curriculum vitae with a photograph, • a certified copy of the leaving certificate of your last general education school (e.g. Realschule plus) and the vocational school, • certified copies of a vocational qualification certificate (e.g. journeyman's, skilled worker or assistant's certificate) or other certificates and certificates of your professional activity,

Hinweise	From the fourth half of the school year, a continuation of professional activity is no longer mandatory. If you are no longer employed, you can apply for BAföG funding. The support is granted as a grant, provided that the conditions are met, and is therefore not repayable subsequently; the support is independent of the income of the parents. Responsible are the offices for educational support at the location of the evening grammar school: the city administrations in Koblenz, Mainz or Speyer.
