Teaser	As an insured person, you are entitled to hospital treatment. The treatment is carried out in a fully inpatient manner if the treatment goal cannot be achieved by partial, pre- or post-inpatient or outpatient treatment including home nursing.
Volltext	Insured persons are entitled to treatment in an approved hospital. The service includes in particular medical treatment, nursing, supply of medicines, healing and aids as well as accommodation and food. Hospital treatment also includes discharge management to support you in ensuring further care after hospital discharge. For this purpose, hospital doctors can prescribe medicines and for a period of up to seven days, among other things, dressings, healing aids and home nursing care, as well as determine the inability to work.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	If there is no emergency, you need a hospital admission from your treating doctor (general practitioner or specialist) in order to be admitted to a hospital.
Voraussetzungen	In the case of inpatient hospital treatment, the principle of "outpatient before inpatient" applies. Insured persons are therefore only entitled to fully inpatient treatment in an approved hospital if the treatment goal cannot be achieved by partial, pre- or post-inpatient or outpatient treatment, including home nursing.
Kosten	Insured persons who have reached the age of 18 pay 10 euros to the hospital for a further 28 days per calendar day within a calendar year from the beginning of the fully inpatient hospital treatment. If insured
