Teaser	Do you want to start working as a young person? Then you must have a medical examination before starting work.
Volltext	If you are under the age of 18 and wish to start work (training), you must first undergo a medical examination (initial examination). The examination will determine whether you are physically and developmentally suitable for this occupation. This is to prevent you from suffering any damage to your health as a result of the work. After the examination, you will receive a certificate. You must present this to your employer. You do not need an examination if you start a marginal employment or if you only work for a short time (maximum 2 months). This applies, for example, to a vacation job or a student internship. The examination costs are paid by the state. You must apply for the initial examination in order for the examination costs to be reimbursed.
