Teaser	If you want to open a private hospital, maternity hospital or private mental hospital, you will need to apply for a license.
Volltext	As an entrepreneur who wants to run a private hospital, maternity hospital or private mental hospital, you need a license. In order to obtain the licence for your private clinic, you must meet personal, structural and operational-organisational requirements. The licence will not be granted to you in the following cases: • If there are facts that suggest your unreliability for the management or administration of an institution or clinic. • If there are facts that you cannot guarantee the medical or nursing care of patients. • If the descriptions and plans of structural and other technical facilities submitted by you do not meet the sanitary requirements. • If the institution or clinic is to be accommodated only in a part of a building also inhabited by other persons and its operation may result in considerable disadvantages or dangers for the people living in the building. • If the institution or clinic is intended to receive persons with contagious diseases or persons with mental disorders and the local location may result in
