Volltext	The aim of aviation security checks is to prevent threats to aviation security caused by the carrying of prohibited items. A comparison between booking documents (boarding pass) and personal documents, the so-called ID check, before access to the security areas at airports does not take place in Germany within the framework of aviation security checks. During police checks of cross-border traffic at the external Schengen borders of the Federal Republic of Germany on the sea and air sides, border crossing documents are checked. Travellers are obliged to carry their border crossing documents with them when crossing the border. It is possible that the air carrier will require the passenger to show a personal document.
