application to make an appointment.

- During the appointment, your identity and the identity of your child as well as your documents will be checked (please bring all documents, if possible in the original, to the appointment).
- If your application is granted, the child's fingerprints will be taken for the purpose of obtaining the new residence permit in the form of the electronic residence permit (eAT card for short). No fingerprints are taken from children under the age of six.
- The Foreigners' Registration Office commissions Bundesdruckerei to produce the eAT card. After completion, you will receive information and can pick up the eAT card at the responsible office. The eAT card must always be collected in person.
- If your application is rejected, you will receive a rejection notice.

Bearbeitungsdauer

approx. 6 weeks to 8 weeks Note for further information on the processing time: The processing time may vary depending on the workload of the Foreigners' Registration Office. The production of the electronic residence permit by Bundesdruckerei takes about 4 to 6 weeks.

Frist

At the latest 8 weeks before the expiry of the current residence permit, the application should be received by the Foreigners' Registration Office. Period of validity: 1 year to 3 years Remark (for more information on the deadline): The residence permit is issued for a limited period of time. The validity depends on the validity of the residence permits of the parents.

weiterführende Informationen

Hinweise

- It is sufficient if one parent holds the described right of residence. It is irrelevant whether the child's parents are married.
- If the residence permit of the parents expires, the child's residence permit can also be revoked.
- Children who have reached the age of 16 can, under certain conditions, obtain a permanent right of residence in the form of a settlement permit (see administrative service "Settlement permit issue for minor children").

Modul
Sachverhalt

- At the latest when the child reaches the age of majority, the residence permit granted to a child becomes an independent right of residence independent of family reunification.
- All information provided to the Foreigners' Registration Office should be correct and complete to the best of our knowledge and belief so that the request can be processed without major delays.
- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be detrimental to those affected. In an emergency, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in good time to the Foreigners' Registration Office may result in the withdrawal of already granted residence rights, a fine, a prison sentence of up to three years or expulsion from federal territory.
- Due to the complexity of the right of residence, this description is for information purposes only and is not legally binding.

Rechtsbehelf

- Appeal against the decision of the Foreigners' Registration Office
- Action before the court referred to in the notice of opposition if the opposition is not complied with
