Modul

Sachverhalt

Act (whistleblower system) Receipt

- Money laundering is the process of smuggling illegally acquired assets into the legal economy and removing them from the reach of law enforcement authorities.
- Money laundering prevention serves to protect companies from being misused for money laundering and terrorist financing.
- Specific reports to supervisory authorities are important and can help to eliminate violations of money laundering prevention regulations and thus ultimately combat money laundering and terrorist financing.
- Reports can be made anonymously, in writing, by telephone or by fax.
- Who is responsible: The responsibilities in the federal states depend on the supervisory authorities of the respective sectors.
