- the birth certificates.

If the spouses were born abroad:

- the birth certificates with certification by the competent foreign authority (apostille) or legalization by the German diplomatic mission abroad.

If one spouse has already been married:

- Certified copy from the marriage register of the last previous marriage with a note of dissolution,
 - alternatively or in the case of previous marriages abroad: proof of the conclusion and dissolution of all previous marriages - for example marriage certificates, death certificates, all divorce decrees (complete and with a note from the court stating when the judgment became legally binding / "final judgment"),
 - If applicable, recognition of the foreign divorce by the President of the Higher Regional Court.

If one spouse has already entered into a registered civil partnership:

- Proof of the establishment and dissolution of all civil partnerships.

Voraussetzungen

A marriage concluded abroad can only be entered in the German marriage register if it was legally valid. Furthermore, it must not contradict German law.

The subsequent certification of the marriage is possible for

- German nationals,
- stateless persons, homeless foreigners or foreign refugees with habitual residence in Germany.
