Teaser	If you have obtained an International Baccalaureate Diploma/Diplôme du Baccalauréat International , in order to apply for a place at a German university, you must first have this degree recognised as a university entrance qualification.
Volltext	If you have obtained an IB diploma at an international school and want to study in Germany, you can apply for recognition of your IB diploma as a university entrance qualification. After successfully checking the prerequisites, you will be issued with a certificate with which you can then apply for a course of study. With full recognition of your IB diploma as a direct university entrance qualification, you can start studying all subjects at all universities and colleges in Germany.

	For this purpose, the number of points you have achieved in the IB program will also be converted into the German grading system. If your IB diploma does not meet all the requirements for direct university admission, you must also pass the assessment test at a German Studienkolleg for recognition as a university entrance qualification. The decision as to whether a school leaving certificate is recognised is made by the university at which you wish to study.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• IB diploma (original or certified copy) • IB intermediate certificates of grades 11 and 12 with level information • Grade 10 certificate before the start of the IB Please inquire at the university where you would like to apply for a degree programme.
Voraussetzungen	The current requirements for the recognition of an IB diploma can be found on the website of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs. https://www.kmk.org/themen/allgemeinbildende-schulen/bildungswege-und-abschluesse/nichtdeutsche-abschluesse.html https://www.kmk.org/themen/allgemeinbildende-schulen/bildungswege-und-abschluesse/nichtdeutsche-abschluesse.html
