Sachverhalt

that can be prescribed in the country of origin but not in the country of destination.

Only you personally may carry the narcotics with the corresponding documents. It is not permitted for a person authorized by you to carry them.

When traveling outside the "Schengen area", you should clarify the legal situation in the country to be visited with the relevant diplomatic representation of the country of destination in Germany before starting your trip. In certain cases, you must obtain a multilingual certificate from your doctor. The certificate contains information on individual and daily dosages, the name of the active substance and the duration of the trip.

If you are carrying certain substitution drugs, such as methadone or buprenorphine, you should also enquire with the relevant diplomatic representation of the country of travel in Germany before you travel.

Taking narcotics abroad as a doctor

As a doctor, dentist or veterinary surgeon, you are permitted to take narcotics with you on charitable missions abroad, such as for Médecins Sans Frontières, or as medical practice supplies in cross-border traffic. Please contact the diplomatic representation of the country you are traveling to in good time to find out whether you can take the narcotics with you and whether you need a permit to do so.

You must be able to identify yourself with a doctor's ID.
