Sachverhalt

Family members and members of a civil partnership should use a joint registration form if they move from a joint dwelling to a new joint dwelling on the same day.

Following the registration, you will receive a registration confirmation.

If the competent authority of your new place of residence has opened an Internet access for the registration, you can also transmit the required information via this access using a qualified electronic signature.

You cannot use this service if you are

- move from abroad or
- use a pseudonym instead of your name in your electronic signature.

In these cases, you must register as described above.
