Teaser	If your address changes, you must have the new address entered on your ID card.
Volltext	If your address has changed, for example after moving house, you must enter your new address on your ID card and have it changed in the chip. To do this, an address sticker with your new address will be affixed to your ID card. Even if you move abroad, no longer have an address in Germany and your address abroad has not yet been determined, your ID card must be changed. The address sticker will then state that you no longer have an address in Germany.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• valid identity card • current confirmation of registration
Voraussetzungen	• Your identity card is valid. • You have already registered your new address with your local registration office.
Kosten	There are no costs.
