Volltext	If you have passed the journeyman's examination at the end of your apprenticeship in the trades, you will be issued with a written certificate. The final examination result will be communicated by the Audit Committee. The preliminary exam results of the written final examinations can usually be accessed online. For data protection reasons, the test results or examinee numbers may not be communicated by telephone. If the final examination is carried out in two parts that fall apart in time, the result of the examinations must be communicated to the candidate in writing in the first part of the final examination. At the request of the trainees, the certificate must be accompanied by an English translation and a French translation. At the request of the trainees, the result of vocational school performance assessments can be shown on the certificate. At their request, the results of the final examination of the trainees will be transmitted to trainees.
