the examination. Failed examinations can be repeated three times.

Before registering for the examination, admission to the master craftsman's examination must be applied for. The prerequisite for admission to the master craftsman's examination is usually a successfully passed journeyman's examination in the craft in which the master craftsman's examination is to be taken. The exact approval guidelines are laid down in the Crafts Code (HwO). In many skilled trades, in addition to a work sample, a master craftsman's examination project must also be carried out in the practical examination.

Admission is granted by the chairman of the master craftsman's examination committee. If the chairman considers that the admission requirements are not met, the entire master craftsman's examination committee shall decide.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

The application for authorisation shall be accompanied by:

- the evidence justifying the competence of the master craftsman's examination board,
