| Hinweise          | Prior to authorisation, special supervisory authorities may be consulted for the activity, as well as the Chamber of Commerce and Industry or the Chamber of Crafts and, in the case of a trade prohibition against a cooperative, the auditing association to which the cooperative belongs. If the competent authority and the authority that ordered the prohibition are not identical, the prohibition authority should also be consulted in advance.                                                                                                                                             |
