Volltext	If you have a severely disabled person's pass that identifies you as helpless, blind or exceptionally handicapped, you are exempt from motor vehicle tax for exactly one vehicle that is registered for severely disabled persons. If you otherwise have a severely disabled person's pass, the motor vehicle tax for exactly one vehicle registered for severely disabled persons is reduced by half. In this case, the tax reduction will only be granted as long as you waive your right to free public transport. The tax relief does not apply if the vehicle • for the carriage of goods (except hand luggage), • for the carriage of passengers for remuneration (with the exception of occasional carriage) or • is used by other persons for journeys which are not connected with the movement or housekeeping of the disabled person.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Severely disabled person's pass (or copy) • after registration: registration certificate Part I (vehicle registration document) • for a reduction of the motor vehicle tax additionally:
