Volltext	The professional title "architect", "interior designer", "landscape architect" and "urban planner" may only be used by external service providers if they are entered under the respective title in the register of external service providers of the Chamber of Architects of Lower Saxony or a comparable directory of another federal state. The same applies to word combinations with one of the job titles (e.g. group of architects) or similar designations (e.g. architect's office). Service providers who have neither a place of residence nor a professional establishment in the Federal Republic of Germany and who temporarily and occasionally wish to provide services of the respective occupational group in Lower Saxony using the professional title are regarded as "foreign". If there is already an entry in a corresponding directory of another federal state, an additional entry in Lower Saxony is not required. It is possible to be entered with the addition "freelance".

Voraussetzungen

External service providers must notify the Chamber of Architects in advance in writing of the initial provision of a service in the fields of architecture, interior design, landscape architecture or urban planning and have themselves entered in the list of external service providers. The notification must be accompanied by:

1. a certificate stating that the service provider for the exercise of the profession is legally established in a Member State of the European Union, another State party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or a State treated as such by an agreement and that he or she is not prohibited from practising the profession, even temporarily,

2. a professional qualification, and

(3) where neither the profession nor the training of the profession is regulated in the State of establishment, proof that the profession has been pursued for at least one year in one or more of the States referred to in point 1 during the previous ten years.

Upon initial notification, the Chamber of Architects checks the professional qualifications of the external service provider. If the professional qualification of the service provider from another Member State of the European Union, another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or a state treated as such by an agreement falls so far short of the requirements of § 6 NArchG that the lack of knowledge, skills and competences endangers public health or safety, and the missing knowledge, If skills and competences are not balanced by professional experience or other proven relevant qualifications, the Chamber of Architects shall give the service provider the opportunity to prove by means of an aptitude test that he or she has acquired the knowledge, skills or competences required to exclude this risk.

An external service provider who is not established in a Member State of the European Union, another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or a state treated as such by an agreement shall, upon request, be entered in the list of external service providers if he or she possesses the qualification pursuant to § 5 para. 1 no. 2 NArchTG.

Registration shall be refused if there are facts showing that the applicant does not have the good repute required for the profession.

Upon request, an external service provider will be entered in the register with the addition "freelance" if it exercises its profession independently and informs the Chamber of Architects about its insurance cover.

Verfahrensablauf

An application for registration must be submitted in writing or online using the form provided. The following supporting documents shall be attached to the application. The registration committee at the Chamber of Architects of Lower Saxony examines and decides on the entry in the register.

In the case of the initial notification, the Chamber of Architects checks the professional qualification of the external service provider, unless proof of training in accordance with § 7 Abs. 1 NArchG has been submitted with the notification.

In the case of applicants from another Member State of the European Union, another state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area or a state treated as such by an agreement, the Chamber of Architects shall inform the service provider of the result of the examination within one month of receipt of the complete documents. If the examination is not possible in due time, it shall inform the service provider of the reasons for the delay within the one-month period. The decision must be taken before the end of the second month following receipt of the complete dossier. If the professional qualification of the service provider falls so far short of the requirements of § 6 NArchG that the lack of knowledge, skills and competences endangers public health or safety, and if the missing knowledge, skills and competences cannot be compensated for by professional experience or other proven relevant qualifications, the Chamber of Architects shall issue the service provider with the Possibility of demonstrating by means of an aptitude test that he or she has acquired the knowledge, skills or competences necessary to exclude this risk.
