Teaser	With the application, compulsory members of the Lower Saxony Chamber of Architects can be exempted from the training obligation for special personal reasons.
Volltext	All compulsory members of the Lower Saxony Chamber of Architects must undergo further professional training (Section 37 (2) No. 1 NArchG). This also applies, for example, to longer stays abroad, as long as the registration is maintained, because the use of the professional title enables the assumption of corresponding activities at any time. The quality standards associated with the professional title must therefore be guaranteed. Exemptions are only possible within a very narrow framework and only for members who do not exercise
