Teaser	You can apply to the Lower Saxony Ministry of Science and Culture (MWK) for funding for cultural projects aimed at promoting exchange between Lower Saxony and other countries.
Volltext	You can apply for funding for a cultural project as an institution or artist in the fields of visual arts, music, literature, socioculture and performing arts from Lower Saxony. The aim of the project must be to establish and deepen cultural contacts between Lower Saxony and other countries. Once the funding application has been submitted online and in paper form to the approval authority (MWK), it is first checked for formal requirements. An interdepartmental expert opinion is then drawn up. The expert opinion contains a vote on whether the application should be funded or rejected. The procedure is continued or concluded with an approval or rejection notice. After completion of the project, the appropriate use of funds must be proven to the approval authority (MWK).
