Sachverhalt

- The other parent has died.
- The child died.
- The child no longer attends school.
- For the child who no longer attends school, the income changes (because, for example, the amount of the training allowance changes).

Notifications to other authorities are not sufficient.

An intentional or negligent violation of these obligations is an administrative offence and can be prosecuted or punished with a fine. In addition, the benefits paid can be reclaimed.

You will receive the maintenance advance for your child if you bring it up in your household without another parent against whom the child is entitled to maintenance. However, this maintenance is not paid by the other parent or the person obliged to pay maintenance, or is paid incompletely or irregularly.

The child's centre of life must clearly be in your household. You must not have married a new partner.

If the eligibility requirements are met, the maintenance advance will be paid to you until your child reaches the age of majority. The limitation on the duration of entitlement (previously a maximum of 72 months) has been lifted.

The amount of the maintenance advance depends on the amount of the minimum maintenance.

If the single parent is entitled to full child benefit, the maintenance advance in Lower Saxony since 1 January 2024 is:

- for children up to 5 years 230.00 Euro per month
- for children from 6 to 11 years 301.00 Euro per month
- for children from 12 to 17 years 395.00 Euro per month

After reaching the age of 12, your child is only entitled to maintenance if one of the following conditions is

At the same time, an important incentive is created for households that are not in need of assistance or could become independent of basic security benefits through their own earned income. The maintenance advance is always paid at the beginning of a calendar month and can be applied for retroactively for one month.
