Volltext	In 2024, the state of Lower Saxony intends to support translators of literary works in the field of literature with a project-related scholarship. The grant is intended to enable the recipient to work more intensively on a translation and bring it to publication. The place of production of the funded translation can be freely chosen. The grant is intended to promote cultural exchange through the translation of a High German publication into a foreign language or through the translation of a foreign-language work into High German. The amount of the grant for translations is up to 7,800 euros. Funding decisions are made by the Lower Saxony Ministry of Science and Culture. Funding recommendations are made by the Lower Saxony Literature Commission. If you have submitted applications to several funding institutions, you as the applicant or grant recipient must inform the Ministry accordingly and also notify it immediately of a positive funding decision by another institution. Multiple funding is generally excluded.

Modul

Sachverhalt

- Reading sample of maximum 10 manuscript pages
- Confirmation from the publisher (e.g. contract)

Voraussetzungen

- A prerequisite for funding is proof of translation activity in the form of a publication by a recognized publishing house (not self-published and not paid-for). In addition, written confirmation from a recognized publisher for the specific translation project with the key dates (fee agreements and deadline) should be available. If a contract is not available, this is not an exclusion criterion.

You are eligible for funding:

- You, if your main place of residence or work is in Lower Saxony and you translate foreign-language literature into German or translate German literature into a foreign language.
- You as a translator, if you translate works by authors from Lower Saxony or literature with a connection to Lower Saxony into a foreign language. In this case, the place of residence or production in Lower Saxony is of secondary importance. It is also possible for recognized publishing houses in Lower Saxony to submit an application for a translator.
- A scholarship will not be awarded if you receive regular benefits from third parties (e.g. residence or work grants) or other funding from the state in the field of literature during 2024.
- Applications for projects that have already been rejected in a previous year can only be considered again after a thorough revision.
