Verfahrensablauf	You submit your application to the relevant Regional State Office for Schools and Education. The regional office will then check whether the requirements for state recognition have been met. It is recommended that you contact them by telephone in advance. The application is made informally and in writing. The option to submit the application online will be set up in 2025. The application will be reviewed as soon as all the required documents have been submitted. If documents are missing, they will be requested. If necessary, an on-site inspection of the premises will take place. A decision will be sent to you after the inspection.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing time of two months can only be achieved if all documents are available at the time of application and there are no follow-up questions.
Frist	1 Jahr(e) State recognition expires if no training has taken place at the school for one year.
