Teaser
Volltext	A certificate of good conduct does not include all entries in the central register. The type of certificate of good conduct is decisive for the content: • for private purposes (document type N) • for submission to an authority (document type O)
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Identity card or passport as proof of identity • For regulatory purposes: Address of the authority and indication of the purpose of use or the reference number
Voraussetzungen	• Completion of the age of 14
Kosten	Gebühr: 13€
Verfahrensablauf	Up to the age of 17, the legal representative can also apply for the issuance. The application cannot be made by a third party. The application is received by the competent authority and forwarded to the Federal Central Register for issuance. The certificate of good conduct for private purposes (document type N) will be sent directly to the applicant's home by post. The certificate of good conduct for submission to an authority (document type O) is sent directly to the authority indicated by the applicant with reference to the purpose of payment. The applicant may request that the certificate of good conduct be first sent to a local court for inspection for submission to an authority, provided that it contains entries.
