| Teaser                     | If you wish to transport more than nine passengers in national transport outside of scheduled transport (occasional transport, e.g. by hired bus service, excursion trips or holiday destinations), you will need a permit to do so.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Volltext                   | If you want to carry out the domestic transport of more than nine people with motor vehicles outside the regular service (occasional traffic), you need a permit for this. This is granted for the intended type of transport (rental bus service, excursion trips or holiday destinations).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
