Volltext	Displays of people are events in which the physical appearance of the persons on display is in the foreground. The performances they perform (e.g. vocal performances or theatrical performances) are in the background. This term mainly covers events which: • display the sexual stimuli of the persons concerned, or • to satisfy the sensationalism of the audience. Examples: Striptease or Tabledance Permission is required for commercial displays of persons. These can be obtained by natural and legal persons. Need permission • the organiser of the exhibition, and • Persons who make their business premises available for the screening. The permission for the display does not replace other permissions. Hint: Performances with predominantly artistic, acrobatic, sporting or similar character are exempt from the permit requirement.
