and to receive the data directly if you appear in person at the competent office. You must then confirm the correctness of the data by signing a printout.

Family members and members of a civil partnership should use a registration form together if they move from a shared apartment to a new shared apartment on the same day.

After completing your registration, you will receive a confirmation of registration.

If the competent authority of your new place of residence has opened Internet access for registration, you can also provide the required information via this access using a qualified electronic signature.

You cannot use this service if you

- move from abroad, or
- use a pseudonym in your electronic signature instead of your name.

In these cases, you will need to log in as described above.
