Teaser	Severely disabled people can extend a parking permit.
Volltext	Parking facilities can be granted for severely disabled people with exceptional walking disabilities, bilateral amelia or phocomelia, or with comparable functional limitations, as well as for blind people in the form of an EU parking permit ("blue parking permit"). Severely disabled persons who are equivalent to the above-mentioned group of persons (special groups of severely disabled persons) can be granted parking facilities – limited to the federal territory ("orange parking permit"). The parking permit offers various special parking rights, e.g. free parking in parking areas. The parking permit is personal and may only be used in the presence of the authorized person(s), regardless of the vehicle used.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application (to be requested from the competent authority) • Copy of severely disabled person's ID card or copy of the pension office's decision • Copy of identity card • up-to-date photo (only for EU parking permit) • If applicable, a certificate of equality from the pension office • If applicable, power of attorney or supervisor card Additional documentation may be required.

Verfahrensablauf

The application for the extension of the exemption must be submitted to the local road traffic authority.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Please check with your local road traffic authority about the processing time, as this varies from one authority to another and may depend on the type of application (in person or online).

Frist

The extension can only be applied for from a certain point in time before the expiry of the current parking permit. This varies, so you should check with your local road traffic authority. The new permanent exemption is granted for a maximum of five years. It can be revoked.

weiterführende Informationen

Further information can be found on the website of your local road traffic authority.

Hinweise

The exemptions apply to the whole of Germany.
