- stand on the side of the customer as the guardian of the customer's interests.

Special features for foreign nationals:

If you are a foreign national and have a branch in another Member State of the European Union (EU), you must register in that country. You do not need a permit in Germany, nor can you be entered in the German insurance intermediary register.

For foreign nationals from non-EU countries, the same provisions apply as for German nationals. These also apply to EU nationals who register a corresponding trade exclusively in Germany.

knowledge and legal regulations of the insurance industry

- Proof by an insurance undertaking of the existence of professional indemnity insurance for the insurance industry

For legal entities, you only need to complete the application form for the legal entity itself. You must submit all personal documents for all persons authorized to manage the company. For the legal entity, you also need an extract from the Central Trade Register.

As such, partnerships are not eligible for approval. Therefore, every managing partner needs permission. For each of these persons, you must submit a completed application form and all personal documents.

Attention: To check personal reliability, your IHK may request further documents. Some of the documents submitted may not exceed an expiry period at the time of the decision (not only at the time of submission). Inquire about this at your IHK.

Note: There may also be costs when requesting documents that you must provide during the procedure.

Verfahrensablauf

You can apply for permission to operate as an insurance intermediary in writing:

- Download the application form from the website of your local IHK. Fill it out completely.
- Then send it with the necessary documents to your responsible IHK.
- As soon as you have provided all the information and the documents are complete, the IHK will decide on your application.
- After a positive examination, you will receive permission and, if necessary, be entered in the register of insurance intermediaries.
- The permission granted is valid for an indefinite period. It does not end until you renounce it. Under certain conditions, the IHK can revoke or withdraw the permission and have you deleted from the register of intermediaries.
