Verfahrensablauf	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• After receipt of the completed membership application and the attachments to be attached, the office first formally checks them for completeness and then forwards the documents to the BBIK Registration Committee. This checks the applicant's eligibility for registration comprehensively. If the documents give rise to doubts as to the conditions for registration or if questions remain unanswered, the applicant shall either be invited to submit further documents and/or given the opportunity to comment on specific issues in an oral interview before the Registration Committee.</li> <li>• The Registration Committee forwards its audit results to the registry. If the result is positive, the BBIK office will inform the applicant in a letter and issue the membership certificate. In the event of a negative result, a rejection notice will be issued.</li> </ul>
Bearbeitungsdauer	The processing of the documents requires a comprehensive and individual examination of the requirements by the BBIK Registration Committee. If necessary, the latter must request further documents. Therefore, no fixed processing times can be named. But as a rule, a decision on the application is made within three months after submission of all complete documents.
Frist	An application for inclusion on the list of voluntary members may be submitted at any time.
