Sachverhalt

country of origin of the German parent.

For this reason, you must always submit a German certificate of no impediment to marriage to the foreign office where you got married. This certificate of no impediment to marriage confirms that there is no impediment to marriage under German law.

If you have more than one nationality, the law of the country with which you are most closely connected will apply.

The German certificate of no impediment to marriage is valid for a period of six months.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Proof of identity, nationality and parentage, marital status and, if applicable, dissolution of previous marriage(s)
  - All documents must be submitted in the original.
- The registry office will provide information on the form in which the documents can be used (e.g. with an apostille or legalization).

Voraussetzungen

The application for a certificate of no impediment to marriage requires German citizenship.

You can also apply for a German certificate of no impediment to marriage if you are a stateless person, a homeless foreign national or a foreign refugee within the meaning of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with habitual residence in Germany and you require the certificate of no impediment to marriage to marry abroad.

The application can only be made via the registry office.

Preliminary and status inquiries should also not be addressed to the Higher Regional Court, but exclusively to the registry office.
