Teaser	The certificate in tax matters is issued on request by the competent tax office. It is used for submission to public authorities and public and private clients.
Volltext	The "Certificate in tax matters" (formerly: "tax clearance certificate") may be issued in all cases where other authorities or contracting entities take into account the tax reliability of the taxable person in the context of their decision in approval or award procedures. The content of the certificate is limited to the non-judgmental indication of tax facts, such as the taxpayer's payment and delivery behaviour. The certificate refers to the current state of affairs, taking into account the applicant's behaviour in the past. A prognosis about the future behavior of the applicant is not made in this respect. The assessment of the certified tax conduct is left to the person who is to take the measure requested by the taxpayer (e.B. granting a business license or issuing public contracts).
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The tax office certifies the tax facts on the basis of the knowledge available there about the payment and delivery behavior of the applicant. Separate documents to be submitted by the applicant are not required for the "Certificate in Tax Matters" in this respect. An informal application is sufficient.
