Teaser	In order to be allowed to use the professional title of architect, urban planner, landscape architect and interior designer, registration with the Chamber of Architects must have taken place.
Volltext	The terms architect and architect, interior designer, landscape architect and urban planner are protected job titles. Only those who register in the Chamber of Architects are entitled to use these professional titles. This is only possible in Brandenburg if the applicant has successfully completed a course of study with a total period of study of at least four years in the relevant discipline, can subsequently prove two years of practical work in the relevant field of study and has completed further training. Graduates who started studying interior design, landscape architecture or urban planning before 1 July 2016 only have to prove a university degree qualifying for a profession after a standard period of study of at least three years.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	With examination of the CPC: • Certified copy of the university certificate and the university certificate (or an equivalent educational institution within the meaning of § 4 BbgArchG) • Proof of standard period of study for Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes • Official translation of the aforementioned documents (for foreign degrees) • Certificate according to EU Professional Recognition Directive • Higher education degrees that differ significantly from the requirements of a German degree can be aligned by compensatory measures; Details in § 4 paragraphs 4 and 5 BbgArchG
