Teaser	Determination and determination of the election result of the election to the district council or to the city council.
Volltext	After the polling stations are closed, the election result in the electoral district is determined by the electoral board and transmitted to the electoral authority as a quick report. The reports of all constituencies in the district are aggregated, so that the provisional result of the election of the district council of a district or the city council of a district-free city is still available on election night. After reviewing these results in the following days, the district election committee determines the official result of the election of the district council or the city council. The district returning officer shall immediately make public the election result and the names of the candidates elected, as well as the names of the substitutes, in the order established. The elected candidates will be notified immediately of their election by the district returning officer.
