Volltext	Students of all nationalities can apply for a Germany Scholarship. The funding is intended in particular for talented and high-achieving applicants, but also for students in advanced semesters. In addition to school achievements, social and societal commitment as well as special personal achievements should be taken into account. The scholarship is paid independently of other benefits, such as BAföG or the income of the parents. Unlike other benefits, the scholarship does not need to be repaid. The scholarship holders are supported with a monthly contribution of EUR 300.00. The scholarship is financed in equal parts by funds from the federal government and private sponsors, especially from industry.
