Teaser	You can apply for a severely disabled person's pass from the Brandenburg State Office for Social Affairs and Care (LASV).
Volltext	The severely disabled person's pass is a nationwide standardized proof of status as a severely disabled person. The prerequisite for the issue of a severely disabled person's pass is the determination of a disability. The assessment notice contains • the individual disabilities, • the degree of disability (GdB) and • any other health characteristics (markings). If the determined GdB is 50 or more, a severely disabled person's pass is issued. The severely disabled person's pass specifies the GdB and other health features (characteristics). Depending on the GdB and characteristics, certain rights and compensation for disadvantages can be claimed, such as • special protection against dismissal under labor law • entitlement to additional leave • Early receipt of retirement pension • income tax concessions • Reduced or free transportation by bus and train • Use of parking concessions • Allowance for the blind • Allowance for the granting of housing benefit • Reduction in radio and television fees • Motor vehicle tax exemption or reduction The symbols have the following meaning:
