Volltext	The wage tax deduction is usually carried out for you by your employer on the basis of the electronic wage tax deduction characteristics (ELStAM). In some cases, however, it is not possible to retrieve the ELStAM, for example, because • Reporting data is incorrect, • Your employer does not participate in the ELStAM procedure, • you have not (yet) been allocated an identification number, although you are subject to unlimited tax liability and are required to register in Germany, • you belong to a group of persons who cannot yet participate in the ELStAM procedure because they are not required to register in Germany: • Employees with unlimited tax liability who do not have a place of residence (e.g. homeless persons, prisoners). • Employees with limited tax liability within the meaning of § 1 (4) EStG who apply for an allowance in the wage tax reduction procedure

Sachverhalt

- Employees with extended unlimited tax liability within the meaning of § 1 Para. 2 EStG
- Employees who are to be treated as employees with unlimited tax liability within the meaning of § 1, para. 3 EStG upon application.

The responsible tax office will then issue you with a "certificate for wage tax deduction" on application, which can be used as a substitute by your employer as a basis for wage tax deduction (so-called substitute certificate). If your employer does not have such a certificate, he must deduct the wage tax according to tax class VI.
