Teaser	You want to start working life as a young person? Then you must have a medical examination before starting work.
Volltext	If you are not yet 18 years old and would like to start gainful employment (training), you must first be examined by a doctor (initial examination). The examination will determine whether you are physically and developmentally suitable for this profession. This is to prevent you from suffering damage to your health as a result of your work. After the examination, you will receive a certificate. You must present this to your employer. You do not need an examination if you start a marginal job (mini-job up to a maximum of € 450.00 per month) or if you only work for a short time (maximum 2 months). This applies, for example, to a holiday job or a student internship. The initial examination according to § 32 JArbSchG is a mandatory task of the health authorities, paediatric and adolescent medical service in Brandenburg. It must be carried out as part of the school leaving examinations.
