Teaser	You can find out how the European elections are conducted here.
Volltext	You cast your vote on a ballot paper. You will receive this from the election committee when you enter the voting room. With the ballot paper, you then go individually into the voting booth. There you mark your desired list election proposal with a cross or otherwise. Then fold the ballot paper so that your mark cannot be seen. The secretary of the electoral committee will then check whether you are listed on the electoral roll, if necessary after you have presented your election notification or your ID card on request. If so, you may place your ballot paper in the ballot box. The clerk will then note that you have cast your vote.
