Verfahrensablauf

Information on potential or actual violations of the Money Laundering Act is forwarded to the responsible supervisory authority.

The information can be submitted anonymously.

The transmission is strictly confidential. Information can only be viewed by the responsible employees of the supervisory authority.

The supervisory authority checks the information.

If the whistleblower has provided their own contact details, the supervisory authority will contact them if necessary and inform them of the next steps to be taken

The supervisory authorities shall only disclose the identity of a person who has submitted a tip-off if they have obtained the express consent of this person beforehand or if disclosure of the information is required by law in the context of further investigations or subsequent administrative or court proceedings or if disclosure is ordered by a court order or in court proceedings.
