Verfahrensablauf

You apply for training funding in writing.

If you apply for funding for further training in writing:

- Submit the application for further training funding to the LASV at least 4 weeks before the start of the course.
- You provide proof of your activity as a midwife by means of a copy of your professional license (certificate).
- You provide details of the training event, e.g. by means of a copy of the training flyer or similar. This should contain information about the costs of the training.
- If you are an employee, ask your employer for confirmation of your permanent employment and proof that you do not receive any financial support from them. At the same time, submit a copy of the confirmation of the notification to the health authority in accordance with Section 12 (2) sentence 1 of the Brandenburg Health Service Act of April 23, 2008 (GVBl. I p. 95) as proof that you are practicing your profession in the state of Brandenburg.
- If you practice your profession exclusively as a freelancer, please submit a copy of the confirmation of the notification to the public health department in accordance with Section 12 (2) sentence 1 of the Brandenburg Health Service Act of April 23, 2008 (GVBl. I p. 95).
- The application should also include other information, such as whether this is a first-time application and whether you have already received a grant for further training in the year of application.
- The State Office for Social Affairs and Supply (LASV) will check the application and decide whether a grant can be approved.
- You will receive information about which expenses are eligible for funding, how payment is made and how

Hinweise	A separate application must be submitted for each training course. This must be submitted at least four weeks before the start of the project with all the necessary documents. The date of receipt is decisive. The premature start of the measure constitutes a violation of the state budget law and excludes funding. A project is generally considered to have begun as soon as the corresponding supply and service contracts have been concluded.
