statutory pension company and occupational pension schemes

- Legal services in a foreign law

A legal service is any activity in specific foreign matters as soon as it requires a legal examination of the individual case. In order to register, you must provide evidence of special theoretical and practical expertise. If you have obtained your professional qualification in an EU or EEA country or Switzerland, you can prove your practical expertise by completing an adaptation period of at least 6 months. After successful registration in the legal services register, you may use the term "debt collection" and the term "pension consultant" or similar terms in your professional title. If you have permanently provided unqualified legal services to the detriment of those seeking legal advice, you may be prohibited from providing further legal services for a maximum of 5 years.
