Teaser	In many municipalities, you can receive financial, material or advisory support for your registered association with legal capacity.
Volltext	Some local authorities have the opportunity to support and promote your club culture. This can be done in various ways: - financial support, e.g. grants for construction measures or per member - material support, e.g. reduced or free use of premises or sports facilities and - advisory support, e.g. support in applying for funding programs. The amount and type of funding is individual. Once the application for funding has been approved, the amount determined is paid out by the responsible body and the material service or advisory activity is provided. In the case of a material service, documentation can be provided on the basis of a protocol. An advisory activity relating to the completion of an application can take place before the application is submitted.
