registered for eServices with the employment agency, you can also exchange all applications and supporting documents online with the job center.

- You then register the trainee with the health insurance company and the employers' liability insurance association.
- You will receive a written notification from the job center as to whether the subsidy will be granted. If you have agreed to electronic transmission of the notification in your online account, the notification will be made available to you online in your notification file.
- If your applicant is required to attend vocational school, you must register him or her at the vocational school and preferably in the relevant subject class before the start of the internship.
- If your trainee requires support during the introductory training, he or she should coordinate this with the Jobcenter and apply for this support if required.
